

"Dear Sir (or Madam)

Many thanks for your charming but rather Delphic epistle of the 5th. You don't even give me a chance of guessing whether you are male or female. Not that these things matter greatly, nowadays!"

(Norman Douglas in his first letter to Bryher, October 20th 1921)

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
Preamble by Michael Allan	1
Letters from Douglas to Bryher 1921-1926	13
Letters from Douglas to Bryher 1927-1938	189
Letters from Douglas to Bryher and two letters from Bryher to Douglas 1939-1951	357
Index	497
Illustrations	525